THREE BAD WRECKS

NINE PEOPLE KILLED ON THE CHICAGO EXPRESS.

COLLIDES WITH A FREIGHT TRAIN.

The Accident Happens at Trenton, N. J.—Four Men Killed on the Pennsylvania Railroad—Wreck in Texas by Which Three Persons Killed—Their Lives and Wrecks Are Injured.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 25.—The rapid section of the Chicago & New York, bound for New York, met an accident Tuesday afternoon near Trenton, N. J., when it collided with a freight train at Lawrence station, near this city. Just as the express arrived, a track under the freight train broke, throwing the wheels in front of the express, derailing it. Nine persons were killed and a number injured. Both trains were bound for New York.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

A Bad Freight Wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Pa., Oct. 26.—Four men were killed in a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad in this city at a place last evening at exactly the spot where the Dock street horror occurred in June, 1892. A loaded freight train going east was boarded at Market street by five men, who got into a coal car. Two squares away, the coal car jumped the track at a switch and half a dozen cars were tipped on end and crashed into a west-bound train of empty cars. The car in which the men were sitting was hurled into the middle of the grinding mass, and four were instantly killed and one injured. It is almost impossible to identify three of the men, owing to their being crushed out of recognition.

BAD WRECK IN TEXAS.

Three Persons Killed and Several Seriously Injured Near Stella.

Houston, Texas, Oct. 25.—At Stella, eight miles from here, the east-bound local freight was derailed. The west-bound California express freight came flying along at a thirty mile per hour gait. The engine and ten cars passed safely, but the eleventh car jumped the track by the other cars. They struck the east-bound engine with terrific force, badly wrecking it. How the engine and train escaped even slight injuries is a mystery, as the engine, besides being smashed, is covered with debris. Two unknown tramps were killed outright. John Door of Luling, was also killed. Several were injured.

Four Safety Deposit Box.

NEVADA, Mo., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Joseph Tablmann of this county went to an old coffee pot yesterday, which she had been using as a safe deposit, for $500 with which to pay off a mortgage on her eighty-acre farm. When she opened the receptacle she found some one had been there before her and emptied the cash.

A Farmer Killed.

ROCKVILLE, Mo., Oct. 25.—Another man was killed in Cooper county yesterday. About 2 o'clock Riley Evans went to the field where Peter Fine was shucking corn and emptied five chambers of a revolver at him, three of the balls entering his body and fatally wounding him. The trouble was over a rented farm which both wanted.
